Defining our organization

As the underlying set of core beliefs, our core values help to define our organization, guide our behavior, underpin operational activity and shape the strategies we will pursue in the face of various challenges and opportunities. Influencing what we do, why we do it, and how we do it, they converge together to create the very fabric of the Regional Health Authority – Central Manitoba Inc. When placed in relationship to each other, our fundamental values of integrity, caring and excellence produce an unfolding of many other virtues or attributes.
